

COMPETITION ARTISTS MUST AGREE TO:

Turn in one completed, framed and ready-to-hang artwork for judging no later than October 1, 2017 at 11 a.m. Work must be a two-dimensional medium with a 36inchX42inch maximum canvas size. All work must be completed en plein air without the assistance of photography. Other work created as part of the contest may be displayed for sale at no charge as space permits.

Pick up any work that is not sold on October 1, 2017 at 3 p.m. or make arrangements for shipping unless participating in the Creekside Place display.

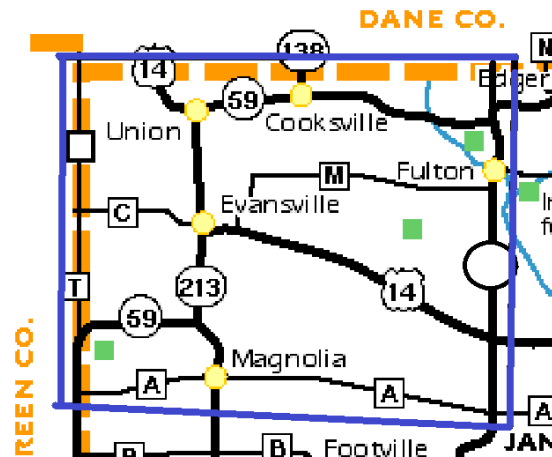

From one week prior to the event and until one week after the competition, agree to not sell any work done during the Theodore Robinson Plein Air Competition without paying a 40% commission to the hosting organization. The same commission will apply to any work commissioned during or as a result of participation in the Theodore Robinson Plein Air Competition. Any works displayed at Creekside Place following the competition are subject to the same terms.

Must price work with a retail price commensurate with their normal pricing structure

Allow images of work entered into the competition to be used by the sponsoring organizations for publicity purposes in subsequent years.

Paint within specified areas from September 22-October 1, 2017. Boundaries are State Hwy 104 on the west, CTH A on the south, CTH H (extended to the county line) on the east and the Dane/Rock county line on the north, as shown bounded in blue below
